The Song of the Cradle.
Bye, bye! Hope rises high
There's a sweet little cradle
A dear little life that is Coming to be:
Two soft chubby hands
That will pat and caress;
A pure little soul winging
Down from above;
A darling to care for,
A baby to love.

One of the grandest agencies which enlighten Science has discovered to relieve Suffering from excessive suffering is the "Favorite Prescription" devised by Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y.

This wonderful "Prescription" imbues the entire nervous system with natural healthy vitality; gives elastic vigor to the delicate organism specially concerned in motherhood, and makes the nursing of baby entirely free from danger and almost free from pain.

"I wish to state that I have used Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription with very good results," writes Mrs. Katie M. Annis, of Hudson, New Hampshire. "I had been in poor health for over four years and had been twice in the hospital. My husband and I had carried me easily through my last two confinements. We are now happy with two healthy children, and I am sure your medicine has done me more good than all the other treatment I have ever received."

BAD HEADACHES generally arise from indigestion, flatulence, or other causes. Foul breath, bitter taste, coated tongue, or belching of gas, are common symptoms though not all present in every case. To cure, take small doses, only one or two each day, of Dr. R. V. Pierce's Pleasant Pills, the Original Liver Pills, not put up by him over 40 years ago. One or two a laxative, three or four cathartic.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbrow's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbrow's Herpicide. "Destroy the germ, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c, in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Irritation
of the throat, sore and swollen tonsils, loss of voice, and other throat troubles should never be neglected. These ailments quickly work down to the lungs, and often end in consumption or pneumonia.

HAMLINS WIZARD OIL

used as a gargle, and externally on the throat, is a marvelous remedy for these painful and dangerous disorders, and effects relief and cure after everything else has failed.

Says Henry Wade, of Harlin, Mo.: "I am under obligations to you for the great good which Hamlin's Wizard Oil did to my wife. She suffered from Throat Trouble for a year, and though she doctored and doctored, nothing did her any good, until she tried Hamlin's Wizard Oil." Price 50c and $1.00.

Found Man Under Her Bed.
For ten years it has been the habit of Mrs. Joseph McKenzie, of Ansonia, Conn., to wind her clock and to peep under her bed for burglars before retiring at night.

She looked under the bed as usual the other night and saw a pair of boots. She thought at first they were her husband's, but, to make sure, she tried to drag them out. Then she discovered it was the burglar for whom she had been looking so long.

The shock was too much for her. She screamed for help. The burglar was so wedged he could not move, nor did he try. This frightened Mrs. McKenzie more. She dashed wildly about the room, so excited that she mistook a window for a door and jumped out. Her bedroom is on the third floor of the house and she fell to the lawn beneath the window. Luckily her fall was broken by bushes, and she arose thinking not of her hurt, but of the burglar. She dashed down the street to the police station.

"I have found a man under my bed," she cried to the sergeant.
All the policemen in the neighborhood were summoned and Mrs. McKenzie led them to her home. They surrounded it, little expecting they had caught the intruder. As they drew in the circle a man appeared at the front door. He was called upon to halt, and he tried to break through the line of police, but they captured him and took him to the police station. He was covered with feathers from the bed tick and with dust, so the man who hid under the bed. Furthermore, Mrs. McKenzie identified him by his shoes.

He said he was Michael Burke, from Lewiston, Me. He was sent to the county jail at New Haven, where he will be kept over Christmas.

Embezzler Surrenders.

Henry M. Allen, an employee of the government printing office at Washington, who, after his disappearance from that city on Wednesday last, wrote a letter to his wife, in which he stated that he intended to commit suicide and that his body would be found "among the hills of Abingdon," north of Philadelphia, surrender himself yesterday to the police at the Philadelphia City Hall.

He told a story of mental torture, the result, he declared, of peculations amounting to $2,200, of which he had been guilty as treasurer of the Printers' Beneficial Association, an organization of employees of the government printing office. Fearing detection, he said, he had fled from Washington with the intention of ending his life.

He decided "to return to the hills of Abingdon," where he had been born and had spent his boyhood, to commit suicide. At a drug store in Abingdon he spent 10 cents, all the money he had, for laudanum, and then hastened to a hill between Abingdon and Willow Grove. There he swallowed the laudanum, only to recover a few hours later to find that the poison had acted only as a sleeping potion, his ignorance of it having prevented him from taking enough to be fatal.

He walked to Philadelphia, but it was not until yesterday that he summoned enough courage to give himself up to the police. With his clothing torn and his haggard face covered with nearly a week's growth of beard, Allen presented a pitiful aspect. He says he is willing to return to Washington.

Dynamite in Rectory.

The rectory of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, in Middletown, N. Y., narrowly escaped destruction Saturday by dynamite. Very Rev. Dean J. P. McClancy and Rev. Father M. J. Shine were in the rectory at the time, and would certainly have been killed but for timely discovery of the explosive. Workmen were engaged in installing a furnace in the cellar of the rectory. The furnace had just been received from the factory, placed in position and the workmen were in the act of putting the 500-pound jacket in place, when one of the men looked into the furnace to see if everything was clear. Right in the place where the jacket would have fallen he found a large stick of dynamite. The dynamite was removed to a safe place, the workmen being so badly frightened that they quit work immediately for the day. Whether the dynamite was in the furnace when it left the factory and stood the jar of being loaded and unloaded from the wagon to car several times without exploding, or whether it was placed there after it reached the rectory for the purpose of destroying the house and killing its occupants is not known, but an effort is being made to find out where it came from.

Herb W. Edwards Injured.

Herb W. Edwards, of Des Moines, Iowa, got a fall on an icy walk last winter, spraining his wrist and bruising his knees. "The next day," he says, "they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed them with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared. I feel that this bottle of Pain Balm saved me several days' time, to say nothing of the suffering." This liniment is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Cure For The Blues

ONE MEDICINE THAT HAS NEVER FAILED

Health Fully Restored and the Joy of Life Regained

When a cheerful, brave, light-hearted woman is suddenly plunged into the perfection of misery, the BLUES, it is a sad picture. It is usually this way: She has been feeling "out of sorts."

For some time; head has ached and back also; has slept poorly, been quite nervous, and nearly fainted once or twice; head dizzy, and heart-beats very fast; then the bearing-down feeling, and during her menstrual period she is exceedingly despondent. Nothing pleases her. Her doctor says: "Cheer up; you have dyspepsia; you will be all right soon."

But she doesn't get "all right," and hope vanishes; then come the brooding, morbid, melancholy, everlasting BLUES.

Don't wait until your sufferings have driven you to despair, with your nerves all shattered and your courage gone, but take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. See what it did for Mrs. Rosa Adams, of 819 12th Street, Louisville, Ky., niece of the late General Roger Hanson, C.S.A. She writes:

"I cannot tell you with pen and ink what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered with female troubles, extreme lassitude, 'the blues,' nervousness, and that all-gory, endearing, and distressing 'bearing-down' feeling. I considered Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a boon to sick and suffering women."

If you have some derangement of the female organism write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice.

Lamentation of London Jews.

Pathetic scenes were witnessed last night at a gathering of 10,000 Jews of the East End of London in the great assembly hall at Mile End, where a memorial service was held for the Jews recently killed in Russia. The hall was draped in black, and the majority of those in the audience wore emblems of mourning.

At the chanting of the fifth chapter of Lamentations almost all present burst into tears and mournful wailing. Rabbi Schwartz, in his sermon, made an eloquent and touching appeal to Christians to come to the help of the Jews, who, he said, for 2,000 years had vainly protested against persecution and could hope for nothing unless the Christians, to procure for their justice and freedom, in conclusion he suggested that all Jews go into deep mourning for a month and to vote the proceeds of their self denial to the relief of their fellow-sufferers in Russia.

Remao Uses Gun.

Robert Simpson, a 19-year-old Remao with melodramatic methods of wooing, was fined $25 at St. Louis, Mo., Friday for carrying a concealed weapon. The Juliet in the case is Miss Julia Form, 18 years old. The two have been engaged for 2 years, and were to have been married Thanksgiving Day. Since their engagement it has been the custom of Simpson to wait for Miss Form every evening, and accompany her home. Wednesday evening, when he arrived at the evening place, he was horrified to see his intended boarding a street car with another youth. Leaping on the car he put the weapon to her head, and told the girl that if she did not go out of the system, sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King Street.

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and saved his life. Be on the watch for burns and sores, 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

A Liquid Cold Cure.

A Cough Syrup which drives a cold out of the system by acting as a cathartic on the bowels is offered in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Clears the throat, strengthens the lungs and bronchial tubes. The mother's friend and the children's favorite. A Best for Croup, Whooping-Cough, etc. A liquid cold cure and the only Cough Syrup which moves the bowels and works all cold out of the system. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King Street.
